

Loyola Marymount University - C.U.R.E.S.

The Center for Urban Resilience and Ecological Solutions

Presents:

Community Environmental Science & Curriculum Workshop

- August 2nd, 3rd, 4th from 9am-3pm each day in Room 324 William H. Hannon Library at Loyola Marymount University (please check in at the security booth located on the Lincoln blvd campus entrance)
- Open to teachers (Grades 5-12), after school professionals, and interested citizens wishing to conduct scientific investigations in their own neighborhood who agree to attend all three days and to pioneer the curriculum in their own schools and communities
- The program will feature projects on bird bioacoustics, biodiversity, water quality, and urban gardens

- There is no charge for participation as support will be provided by the National Science Foundation, Los Angeles County Supervisor Mark Ridley-Thomas and Loyola Marymount University
  - SPACE IS LIMITED SO RESERVATIONS ARE REQUIRED

Contact: Ms. April Sandifer at UrbanEco@lmu.edu (310) 338-2343. This is the first of a series of workshops to be held over the next year, and you are welcome to sign up for any of the workshops.